There are an unknown number of Frank the kids around Chinatown. The only saloon near Dover and Pell streets is Jim Lavelle's place on Dover street. The proprietor said last night that there used to be a "smoker" in the neighborhood known as Frank the Kid, but that he left for the West about four years ago. At Callahan's saloon, on the Bowery jist below Pell street, it was said that there had been one Frank the Kid who was last seen about Chinatown almost a year ago. Another is still around there and was seen last night. NEGROES TO SUE THE CITY. Claims for $255.000 Already Filed as a Result of the Recent Rioting. Eight more claims on behalf of negroes who allege that they were assaulted by policemen during the recent race riots in this city were filed with Comptroller Coler yesterday. These claims aggregate $130,000, and together with the seven filed on Tuesday, represent a total of $255,000 which the city is asked to pay as a result of the disorder growing out of the murder of Policeman Thorpe by the negro cook Harris. The claims were presented by Israel to damage suits against the city for the amounts they represent. Those filed yesterday follow: By John Weir and his wife, Bessie, of 215 West Twenty-ninth street for $15,000 each; by Charles Sanders of 263 West Forty-seventh street for $15,000 by William Devon of 403 West Twenty-ninth street for $15,000; by Albert Saunders of 440 West Forty-fifth street for $15,000; by Floyd Wallace of 339 West Thirty-sixth street for $15,000; by Barrington Carter of 360 West Fifty-third street for $25,000, and by Robert Myrick of 414 West Thirty-ninth street for $15,000. Each claim was accompanied by a demand for settlement within twenty days.

Mr. Ludlow said that he had not suggested the suits to the negroes, but that the clients had been sent to him by the Rev. William H. Brooks, of St. Mark's Colored Methodist Church in West Fifty-third street. The Rev. Mr. Brooks sent word throughout his parish for all negroes who have grievances against the police to report to him. It is expected that many more dains will be presented. to damage suits against the city for the amounts who have grievances against the police to report to him. It is expected that many more claims will be presented.

Judge McMahon, in General Sessions, yesterday discharged the August Grand Jury. The jury did not make any report concerning its investiations of the race riots. Acting District Attorney McIntyre said that none of the negroes examined had been able to identify any of the alleged police assailants, and that sufficient evidence could not be found even to make a presentment.

The Police Board will begin an investigation of the alleged assaults this afternoon.

QUEER KIDNAPPING STORY.

Bad Man Tries to Steal a Girl After Throwing Her Father From a Carriage. FITCHBURG, Mass., Aug. 29.—The local po lice are hunting for Emery Gilbert. Last night George Ash, residing at 81 Phelps street, ranup to Policeman H. J. Michaels and shouted, "For God's sake, save my daughter."

Ash's face was bloody and his clothing torn. When he calmed down he said that Gilbert, who lives at 68 Green street, came to his house about midnight last night with a carriage and about midnight last night with a carriage and after waking up Mr. Ash's family, said that a girl friend of his daughter was dying and she was wanted at once. Miss Ash refused to go unless accompanied by her father and the latter decided to go in the carriage also. After they had driven a short way, Ash says that dilbert began pounding him over the head, making him unconscious, and then threw him out of the carriage.

As soon as he recovered consciousness, Ash started to find a policeman, supposing that dilbert had succeeded in carrying away his daughter, but the girl soon appeared. She said that she had managed to escape by jumping out of the carriage when Gilbert supposed she had become too terror stricken to offer resistance.

Policeman Damon saw Gilbert shortly after midnight running into his house, and becoming suspicious, decided to investigate. He found that a carriage which the young man had been said a contraction of the been seen driving early in the evening, was standing on Waverley street. In the carriage were too large stones. It is supposed these were the weapons with which Ash was beaten. The police have not been able to find Gilbert as yet.

TO REPEAL THE GOEBEL LAW. Provisions of the New Election Measures Before the Kentucky Legislature. FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 29 .- The first of the measures presented to the Legislature's extra ession to repeal the Goebel law were offered to-day by Senators Alexander, Brown, Demo-erats, and Kirk, Republican. Both provide for repeal of the Goebel law and for an absolutely new law. Alexander's bill gives the appointing of election officers into the hands of the county Judge, Clerk and Sheriff, constituting a County Board of Election Commissioners. Four election officers are to be appointed for each precinct, two selected from each party from lists presented by the respective local party organizations. The State Board is to be composed of Governor, Attorney-General and Secretary of State. and in case of contest for Governor, the board is to be composed of three members of the House and two of the Senate.

Senator Alexander said when presenting his bill that he did so without having consulted Democrats or Republicans and that if a better measure were offered he would support it. The Kirk bill is not materially different, but provides for the preservation of ballots for six months for inspection in case of a contest. Chairman McCreary of the State Campaign Committee, Congressman Rhea and a large number of Democrats are here in conference with Speaker pro tem. Carter, Speaker Trimble and leading Democratic members and Senators are considering measures to be introduced, with a view to bringing about an agreement on a bill. The adoption of the Ohio law and removing party devices from the ballot is still in much favor. The views of the Democratic members have been solic ed on various proposed measures in a meeting held to-day and this evening, with a view to adopting a bill as a party measure without holding a caucus, which will be resorted to only in case there is likelihood of an agreed upon measure falling of passage. The bill under consideration to which will be resorted to only in case there is likelihood of an agreed upon measure failing of passage. The bill under consideration to be supported by the Democrats will probably be introduced to-morrow by Senator Johnson or Senator Carter. The Republicans will support the Alexander or the Kirk bill, but should a conservative Democrat offer still another fair bill the Republicans will vote with them. In contrast to last session, there has so far been no bitter partisanship exhibited.

BREAKING CAMP AT WEST POINT The Cadets Parade Under Arms and Are Reviewed by Col. Mills.

By 10:30 all the baggage had been transferred and everything was in readiness for striking camp. The drum corps sounded the "general." ropes were loosened from the pegs, and with a man stationed at each tent pole all tents fell simultaneously with the tap of the bass drum. After rolling up the canvas the cadets paraded under arms and fell in line on the cavairy plain. The battalion then marched down past the officers' line. Col. Mills, superintendent of the academy, stood at the piazza of his quarters and received the boys as they marched by in splendid order.

received the boys as they marched by in splendid order.

The hop last night in Memorial Hall in honor of the furlough class was a brilliant affair. Such a large number of pretty girls has not been seen at the Post in many years.

There has been a reorganization of the corps since its increase. It consists now of a six-company formation instead of four as formerly. The number of cadets now at the academy is 450, giving each of the six companies seventy-five men. The formation of two new companies has made two extra cadet Captains and six extra cadet Lieutenants, three for each company. Cadet E. N. Johnston of Missouri has been chosen to command Company E, and Cadet F. M. Dougherty of Pennsylvania has been selected to command Company F.

Row Over Dogs and Poultry Results in Town Clerk Velsor's Arrest.

AMITTYTLLE, L. I., Aug. 29 -Justice Cooper this evening issued a warrant for the arrest of former Town Clerk Eugene Velsor, the Republican leader of the Fifth district, on the charge of assault preferred by Mrs. Mary Hall. The informant in her deposition alleges that Velsor struck her with a gun barrel, inflicting a painful wound on her arm, shook her violently, threw her to the ground and threatened her life. Mrs. Mary Walters, a neighbor of Mrs. Hall, confirms the informant's statement and made affidavit to the Magistrate that Velsor also remarked when he threw her down: "I'll bury you as I have your cats and dogs."

The families live in adjoining villas and Velsor, who is a fancier of high-bred poultry, suffered heavy losses from a prize winning canine owned by Mrs. Hall. Velsor finally caught the dog in the act of killing the poultry and shot him Mrs. Hall saw him and Velsor alleges that she attacked him and that he only The informant in her deposition alleges that and shot him Mrs. Hall saw him and Velsor alleges that she attacked him and that he only used sufficient force to defend himself from being seriously injured. He denies having struck her and alleges that he simply held her till he could make his escape. Every effort was made to induce the Magistrate not to issue the warrant and he twice refused, but was finally compelled to allow the case to come to trial. Mrs. Hall has retained former Judge John R. Reid to prosecute the case, which will be heard on Friday.

When the North German Lloyd Company recently rented the pier at the foot of Smith street, Brooklyn, a contract was made with a Hoboken livery stable man to supply cabs and coaches for the use of the passengers. The borough authorities made a demand for the prescribed hoense fee of $3 a year for each cab and $5 for each coach, but the company refused to pay it on the ground that the pier was private property. A suit has been brought against the company to enforce the payment of the fees. Beal Estate-Out of the City.
